

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MAY 15, 1838.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. CRITTENDEN submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims have, according to the order of the Senate, had under consideration the petition of the heirs of General Jacob Bayley, praying compensation for his services, losses, and sacrifices during the revolutionary war; and they respectfully report:

That the only testimony adduced in this case is the deposition of Moody Bedel, and certain papers purporting to be copies of letters written during the revolutionary war, to and from said Bayley. Admitting that this testimony was sufficient to show his rank in the militia, his services and his zeal, it utterly fails to establish any pecuniary claim against the United States.

The committee, therefore, respectfully submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the petition be rejected.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 12, 1838

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. CHRISTIANITY submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims have, according to the order of the Senate, had under consideration the petition of the heirs of General Jacob Bayley, praying compensation for his services, losses, and sacrifices during the revolutionary war; and they respectfully report:

That the only testimony adduced in this case is the deposition of Moody Babel, and certain papers purporting to be copies of letters written during the revolutionary war to and from said Bayley. Admitting that this testimony was sufficient to show his rank in the militia, his services and his worth, it utterly fails to establish any pecuniary claim against the United States.

The committee, therefore, respectfully submit the following resolution: Resolved, That the petition be rejected.
